Commissioner for Patents
PO Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Declaration Pursuant to 37 CFR §1.132

Sir, we hereby declare that:

1. I, Matthew E. Hoekstra, am a citizen of the United States and a resident of the state of Oregon.
I, Jose Ramirez II, am a citizen of the United States and a resident of the state of Oregon.
2. We are the inventors of the subject matter set forth and claimed in the above-referenced patent application.
3. It has been brought to our attention that in an office action, mailed on November 25, 2008, the patent examiner has rejected all pending claims of the above application, at least partially relying on U.S. Patent Application Publication No. 2004/0122949 filed by Zmudzinski et al.

4. Having reviewed the relevant portions of the office action and the cited patent application in the preceding paragraph, we further declare that the information contained in the relevant portions of U.S. Patent Application Publication No. 2004/0122949 are our work, and the broader subject matter of the 2004/0122949 application are derived from our work. At the relevant time period, we, Mr. Zmudzinski, and the other inventors listed in U.S. Patent Application Publication No. 2004/0122949 were all co-workers at Intel Corporation, of Santa Clara, California, owners of the intellectual property disclosed in both applications. The inventors listed in the 2004/0122949 application had access to our work, and relied upon it to develop the broader subject matters of the 2004/0122949 application based on our work.
5. We further declare that all statements made herein are of my own individual knowledge and believed to be true; that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and the statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment or both under Section 1001 Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the above identified patent application or any patent issued thereon.
